

*The Student Employment and Labor Law Association
In co-sponsorship with Federalist Society, Law School Democrats, and the ABA Journal of Labor & Employment Law*

Present

Right to Work? Or Right to Work for Less?

A panel discussion on the merits of the proposed legislation for Minnesota to become a “Right to Work” state

This legislation (present in 22 states) prohibits union dues from being a condition of employment, however the laws have been shown to reduce local wages and union density

Panelists

Justin Cummins, attorney, Miller O’Brien Cummins

Richard Ross, attorney, Fredrickson & Byron

Bernie Hesse, political director, United Food and Commercial Workers Local 1189

Rep. Steve Drazkowski (R-28B), Minnesota State Legislature

Thursday, Oct. 27th

12:15 – 1:15

Auerbach Commons

Lunch Provided

